

CPD course for umpires

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: August 12, 2016

Already-qualified umpires are being offered the chance to further their knowledge and skills at a training course in Burton.

It is hoped Rio Olympics table tennis referee Stuart Sherlock will be one of the tutors at Burton Table Tennis Centre on Sunday September 25 from 10.15am-4pm.

The seminar will look at helping to enhance umpires' understanding of their role and dealing with dissent, consistency, presentation on court, live streaming, new hand signals and helping the event team to deliver a well organised and enjoyable tournament for participants.

Please click on the attachment below for more details and to fill in an application form before September 19.

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/national-news/cpd-course-for-umpires/>