

Liverpool Grand Prix draw finalised

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: August 15, 2016

Kelly Sibley will start the defence of her overall Grand Prix title when the 2016/17 series gets under way in Liverpool.

The England No 1 is the second seed behind Romania's Iulia Necula in a strong women's event which also includes England pair Karina Le Fevre and Maria Tsapsinos and leading Welsh trio Charlotte Carey, Angharad Phillips and Megan Phillips, as well as Scotland's Gillian Edwards.

In the men's event, overall champion Ryan Jenkins does not feature, leaving Scotland's Gavin Rungay as the top seed. He is followed by Chris Doran – winner of last season's final event in London – Darius Knight and Mike O'Driscoll.

To view the event programme, including the draw, click here.

The event at Lifestyles Tennis Centre in Wavertree is the first of 11 events – eight main and three satellite – this season, culminating once again in London in May. Click here to find out more about the 2016/17 circuit.

Entries are now open for the third stop of the circuit, the Tipton Grand Prix, on October 15-16. To download an entry form or enter online, click here.

To enter the Crawley Grand Prix on September 24-25, click here.

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/liverpool-grand-prix-draw-finalised/>