

Hunts 2* extends deadline for female players

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: August 23, 2016

Organisers of the Hunts 2* Open are appealing for more female players to compete at the competition and have extended the entry deadline for women until the end of this week.

The two-day event is a major early-season competition every year and features sections for under-13s, Cadets, Juniors and Under-21s as well as Seniors and Veterans, including Banded competitions. There is a prize fund of more than £1,100.

For more information and to enter, click here

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/featured-news/hunts-2-extends-deadline-for-female-players/>