International Table Tennis is coming to Medway Park, Gillingham, Kent on Tuesday November 22nd! With only a hair's breadth between the two countries in the world rankings, expect a thriller when England women take on Slovenia!

Victory in this clash which is sure to go a long way towards determining England's qualifying position for the European Championships – come and play your part in cheering the Leopards to victory!

The Competition

We are running a special Design a Mascot competition for all primary school children living in Kent to celebrate this event.

Young designers are invited to create a Table Tennis England Mascot. The top six designs, to be chosen by the Table Tennis England Senior Management Team, will win a spot on the Player Escort Team, to accompany the England and Slovenia players out onto the field of play. Winners will receive two tickets to the event, one for them and the other for an accompanying adult.

To enter the competition the child must live in Kent and be aged between 4 and 11 years. Further details about the competition can be read in the competition entry form which can be downloaded below.
