and of course in any of these matches are won then later matches are also likely to be shown

The story today

No success for anybody except Liam in the Singles events, David McBeath came up against the No 6 seed Romain Lorentz of France and went down in 5 games in the Junior Boys Singles.

In the Cadet Boys Singles No 4 seed Tristan Flore of France was far too strong for Igor Morais winning in 4 straight games as was no 29 seed Patrik Vlacuska too strong for Helshan Weerasinghe, all four games were close however and Helshan was most sportsmanlike to refuse a point that would have taken him to 10-8 in the fourth game, the ball clipped the edge but only Helshan realised that! The resulting 9-9 became 11-9 very quickly but all were very appreciative of what had happened after the match.

In the Cadet Girls Singles it was the same story for Tin Tin Ho, seeded Anđelija Ratić of Serbia was just too strong but again Tin Tin made all the games competitive without managing to take one herself.

Liam Pitchford disposed of first Dimitar Atanasov of Bulgaria in the third round and then in the last 32 he came through against hard hitting Georgios Fragkoulis of Greece, first three games went to Liam and it looked like he would clean up in 4 but the Greek had other ideas, he took the next two games before Liam restored his dominance to take the sixth and final game 11-6.

In the third round of the Junior Boys Doubles Liam Pitchford with his Hungarian Partner Gergey Perei had no difficulty getting past an Italian pair in 3 straight games, In the Junior Girls Doubles Czech pair Kristyna Mikulcova and Dagmar Blaskova were too strong for Karina Le Fevre and Lucy Davidson winning their second round encounter in 3 straight games.

In the second round of the Cadet Girls doubles Emily Bates and Tressa Armitage played a superb match to beat the home pairing from Turkey, Gokcenur Gungor and Ipek Karahan in three straight games.

The Junior Mixed Doubles saw the rest of the action as Liam Pitchford with his Hungarian partner Krisztina Ambrus first beat Damiano Seretti of Italy and Nataly Ruvman of Israel in three straight games but in the last 16 they came against Croatian Filip Cipin and Anais Leveque of France, the Croatian/French pair ran away with the first two games Liam and Krisztina responded taking the third game but in the fourth game they were unable to match the stronger pair. Liam's only loss of the day however.
