The two Grand Prix winners of the season so far head the men's entry list for the third instalment of the series in Tipton.

Liverpool winner Chris Doran and Crawley champion Darius Knight are the top two seeds for the event, at Tipton Sports Academy on October 15 and 16. Ismaila Akindiya adds an international flavour at No 3 in the rankings.

Karina Le Fevre, who also won at Crawley, is No 1 seed in the Women's Singles, followed by a clutch of young English players in Maria Tsaptsinos, Lois Peake, Evie Collier and Kate Cheer.

As ever, Saturday's play will be made up of Banded competitions, with Sunday featuring Men's and Women's Singles, Under-21 and Veterans' events.
