

Stoke City ace Bojan's backing the Leopards!

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: October 19, 2016

Premier League football ace Bojan has helped to promote the England Leopards' upcoming match against Greece.

The Stoke City player sprinkled his stardust on a Stoke City Premier League 4 Sport event at Fenton Manor Sports Complex in Stoke-on-Trent – which will host the England men's European qualifying match on November 1.

As well as taking on local children, former Barcelona player Bojan also played against England table tennis international Danny Reed. You can see the results on the video below.

Local media also covered the event, as did the Stoke City website.

Tickets are still available for the match – click here for more details and to buy tickets.

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/featured-news/stoke-city-ace-bojans-backing-the-leopards/>