The 12th annual Northamptonshire Sport awards were held at Sywell aerodrome on Thursday 10th November.

Where the Lifetime Contribution to Sport Award was won by Tom Cardwell, Mr Table Tennis from Corby Table Tennis Club after a lifetime of service to the club and community.

Tom Cardwell has run Corby Town Table Tennis Club since 1975. The club has managed to develop a huge number of players across Corby. Despite being 78, Tom Still coaches every week and plays competitive table tennis. What also stands Tom out is that he has done most of this single handed.
