The Grand Prix circuit arrives in Bath next month – and entries have been pouring in.

With just over a week to go before the entry deadline, it looks likely that the competition will prove to be a popular addition to the calendar.

Bath is the sixth stop of the season and competition is set to be fierce as the leading players battle for points in all the Bands as the series moves towards its conclusion.

Entries are already open for the seventh event in Nottingham on March 25 and 26, before the series finale in London in May, when the champions will be crowned.

There are also two more Satellite Grands Prix on the horizon, with entries now open for the popular Jersey event over the Easter bank holiday weekend from April 14 to 16 and Burgess Hill to follow.
