

Win a coaching session with Paul Drinkhall!

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: February 22, 2017

Paul & Jo Drinkhall are ready for their big mixed doubles comeback at the PG Mutual Nationals – and to celebrate, we have teamed up with Bribar for a fantastic spot-the-ball competition with some superb prizes.

The golden couple of English table tennis were last seen on the table together in becoming Commonwealth Games champions at Glasgow 2014.

Now, after a break to start a family, Jo is making her comeback and looking for glory in Nottingham, not just with Paul in the Mixed, but also alongside Kelly Sibley in the Women's Doubles.

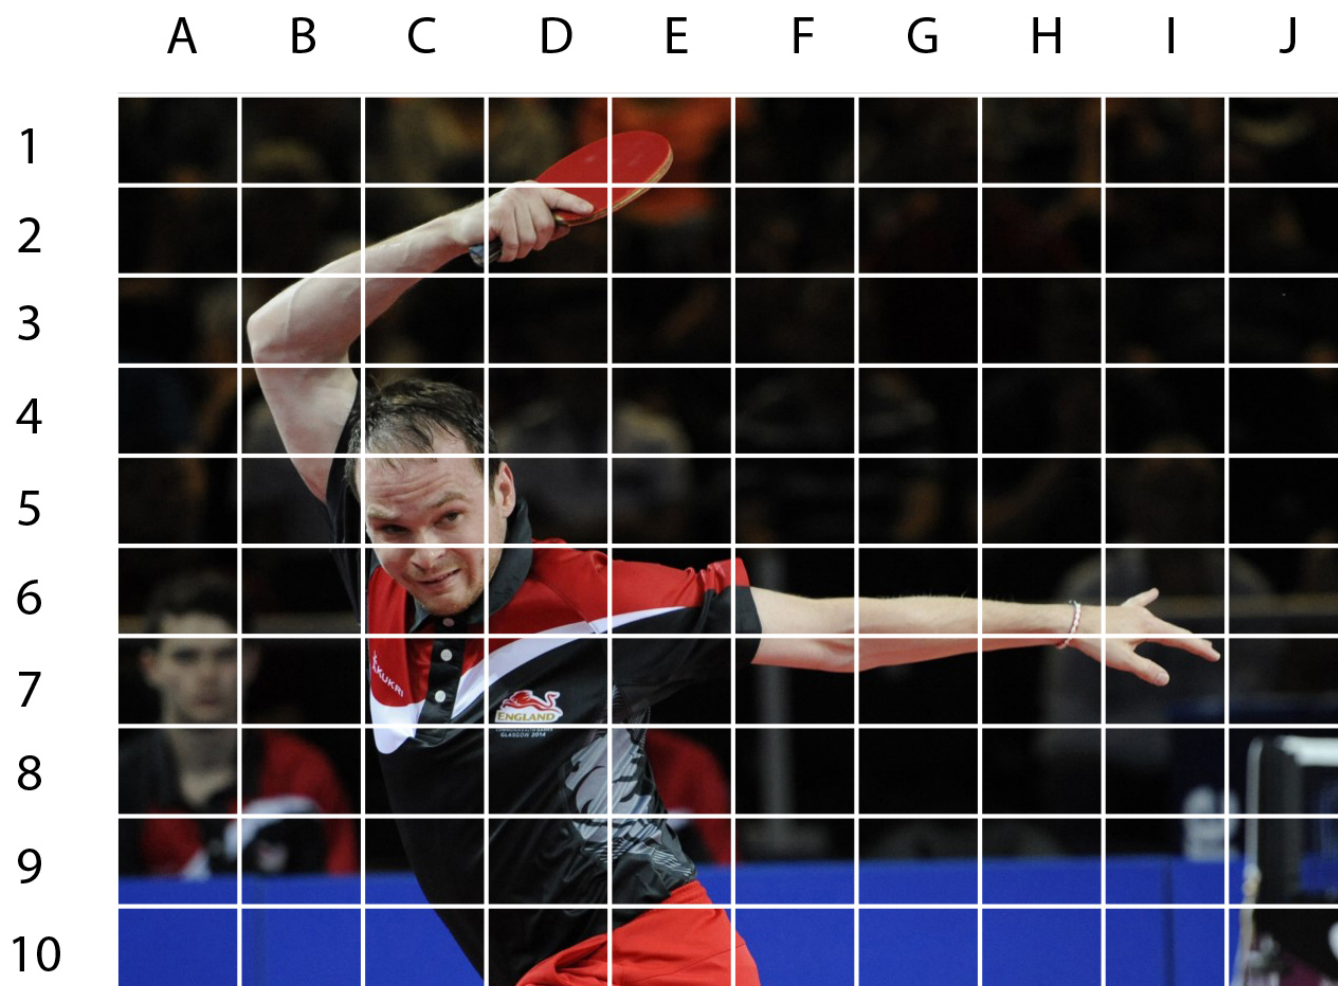

It's sure to be one of the big talking points of the event – and we are offering three lucky winners the chance to scoop some amazing prizes to mark the occasion.

First prize is a one-to-one coaching session with Paul, PLUS a shirt signed by Paul and Jo, signed blades from both AND tickets to England's European play-off match in April.

Second prize is a shirt signed by Paul and Jo, signed blades and tickets to the play-off.

And the third prize winner will get a pair of Mizuno Wave Medal 5 shoes and tickets to the play-off.

What do you have to do to be in with a chance of winning? Simply study the picture below and work out which square you think the ball is in.

Then click this link to visit the Bribar website to make your selection and enter the draw.

Spot the ball today and you could soon be enjoying these great prizes, including some one-to-one coaching with a double Olympian!
