England's contingent of Juniors have been eliminated from the singles and doubles events at the Swedish Youth Open.

Matt Leete, Luke Savill and Samuel Kwan all qualified from their groups to reach the main draw in Orebro but were eliminated at the first knockout stage – Leete in the last 128 and the others in the last 64 – Savill by No 2 seed Vladimir Sidorenko.

Tom Jarvis, who was seeded No 8 and went straight into the knockout stage, was also beaten in the last 64 in seven sets by Singapore's Kun Ting Beh.

Shayan Siraj and Kieran Wardell – like Kwan, making his international debut – were eliminated in the group stage, both winning one match. Siraj reached the last 16 of the consolation singles, while Wardell was beaten in the last 64.

In the Junior Girls' Singles, Denise Payet and Charlotte Bardsley made it into the knockout stage with two wins apiece in their groups, but were knocked out in the last 64 by players from the host nation. Gauri Duhan was eliminated at the group stage.

In the doubles, Savill & Jarvis won their last 64 match but were knocked out in the next round.

Every other doubles match involving English players resulted in a defeat at the first hurdle.

England have a big contingent in the Cadet competitions which start on Saturday.
