Nine matches will decide the destination of five titles on the final day of the PG Mutual National Championships.

Men's and Women's Singles semi-finals and finals, plus three doubles finals, are on the agenda at the University of Nottingham's David Ross Sports Village.

As well as hundreds of spectators in the village, millions more are expected to see at least part of the action on the SPORTbible Facebook page from 2.15pm, with the last three matches to be streamed live on the platform. The previous matches will be streamed on Table Tennis England's YouTube channel.

The action starts at 9.30am with the Women's Singles semi-final between surprise package Denise Payet, 15, and defending champion Tin-Tin Ho.

The full schedule is as follows:

9.30am – Women's Singles semi-finals – Tin-Tin Ho v Denise Payet

10.15am – Men's Singles semi-finals – Paul Drinkhall v Danny Reed

11am – Women's Singles semi-finals – Kelly Sibley v Maria Tsaptsinos

11.45am – Men's Singles semi-finals – Liam Pitchford v Sam Walker

12.30pm – Mixed Doubles final – Paul & Jo Drinkhall v Sam Waker & Tin-Tin Ho

1.15pm – Women's Doubles final – Kelly Sibley & Jo Drinkhall v Tin-Tin Ho & Maria Tsaptsinos

2.15pm – Men's Doubles final – Paul Drinkhall & Liam Pitchford v Chris Doran & Mike O'Driscoll

3pm – Women's Singles final – Kelly Sibley v Tin-Tin Ho

4pm – Men's Singles final – Paul Drinkhall v Sam Walker
