

FREE Disability Session in Weymouth

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: March 14, 2017

FREE DISABILITY TABLE TENNIS SESSION

SATURDAY MARCH 25TH – 2PM TO 4PM

ALL SAINTS SCHOOL, WEYMOUTH (DT4 9BJ)

The session is open to all groups, families, friends and carers and will be delivered by Shaun Newcomb.

Shaun specialises in coaching athletes with a disability, working from beginner standard to Elite level. A former GB player, Shaun continues to work closely with British Para Table Tennis on Development and Selection. Shaun has been a training partner for some of our current GB Paralympic athletes and was selected to be the coach for the EAD (Elite Athletes with a Disability) at the 2010 Commonwealth Games in Delhi, as well as GB Team Manager and Lead Coach at both the 2013 INAS World Championships (for athletes with a learning disability) in Hong Kong and for the 2014 IWAS World Junior Games. Shaun works with Table Tennis England as an adviser on disability issues as well running frequent regional disability training sessions. He also runs table tennis sessions for rehabilitation in the Duke of Cornwall Spinal Injuries Centre in Salisbury, Wiltshire.

This session is open to all groups and individuals to attend. For more information please contact Andy Millar at a.millar212@gmail.com or 07710 507075 Weymouth & District Table Tennis League

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/local-news/south-west/free-disability-session-in-weymouth/>