Highlights of the PG Mutual National Championships will be shown on Sky Sports Mix next week.

A one-hour programme will air at 6pm on Tuesday April 4, with several repeats to follow.

It will include highlights from all three days of the Nationals at the University of Nottingham, plus player interviews and special features, and is presented by England No 6 Emma Vickers.

The programme was put together by our partners 1080 Media and is the first of a series of broadcasts which will feature on Sky Sports Mix, including soon-to-be-aired highlights of the recent England v Netherlands men's European Championships qualifier.

There will also be a programme on the upcoming European play-offs double-header in Preston as England men take on Slovakia and England women face Spain.

Alongside live coverage of the events on the SPORTbible Facebook page and Table Tennis England's own channels, it means our biggest events are available to a bigger audience than ever, in a variety of formats designed to appeal to existing and new supporters of the sport.
