

Jarvis and Payet are the perfect champions

Tom Jarvis and Denise Payet both maintained unbeaten records to finish top of the pile at the Junior National Cup.

The top seeds were in good form throughout, with few awkward moments – though Jarvis did have to come from 3-1 down to defeat Josh Bennett.

The competition, at Milton Keynes TTC, was for players at the top of the rankings and played on a round-robin format.

Boys

Tom Jarvis matched his 100% record from last year as he retained his title ahead of Matt Leete and Luke Savill, the latter having also started day two unbeaten.

The top two continued their serene progress in the first round of the day, though Josh Harland did take a game off Savill, while Leete and Josh Bennett kept up their challenge for the medals with 4-2 wins over James Hobson and Joe Clark respectively.

Round 7 was where it really began to heat up as the top four seeds began facing off against each other, and when Leete led Savill 3-1 and Bennett led Jarvis by the same score, we were headed for a four-way tie at the top again.

But Jarvis managed to turn his match around, finding the right serve formula to flummox Bennett, so much so that the deciding set was 11-1 in the No 1 seed's favour.

There was no matching comeback for Savill in a high-class clash against Leete, though, the Grantham player taking it 4-2 to move level with his opponent on six wins apiece and leave Jarvis clear with seven.

Jarvis closed in on the title with a 4-1 win over Leete in round 8, while Savill retained an interest in the destination of the gold medal with a matching scoreline against Bennett.

There was also a cracker between Joe Clark and Shayan Siraj, the former taking the decider 11-5 having never trailed in the match but finding it hard to shake off his opponent.

Savill could have taken the title with victory over Jarvis, but in the event it was relatively one-sided as the top seed closed it out 4-0.

That meant Leete's victory over Bennett was enough to take silver by virtue of having earlier beaten Savill, both having ended with seven victories.

The final match to finish was another cracker involving Siraj and this time he came out on top, defeating Samuel Kwan 4-3 (11-9, 8-11, 11-7, 7-11, 13-15, 12-10, 11-9).

Clark's win over Smith saw him take fifth on countback ahead of his opponent and James Hobson.

Girls

Denise Payet added the Junior National Cup to her list of honours with a 100% record, upgrading the Cadet title she took last year.

Mollie Patterson and Jasmin Wong were second and third respectively, having started the competition at No 6 and No 7 on paper.

Already two players light after fifth seed Zahna Hall and fourth seed Charlotte Bardsley withdrew before day one with illness and injury respectively, the field was further depleted when third seed Gauri Duhan pulled out on the second morning with a leg injury.

It meant seven remained, and confirmed top seed Payet as gold medallist before a ball was hit on day 2, Duhan having been the only player who could have prevented that.

It also opened up the minor medals, and Patterson quickly took possession of silver with victories over Jasmin Wong and Sophie Barlow in her first two matches of the day, confirming it by defeating Ruby Chan in round 8 to finish with five wins from six.

Chan picked up her first victory in round 7, though not before seeing her opponent Sarah Menghistab fight back from 3-0 down to level.

The battle for bronze was still live going into the final round as Menghistab and Wong faced off, and it was the latter who controlled proceedings throughout a 4-0 win to claim the last podium place and put her in good heart for the Cadet National Cup next week, where she is seeded No 3.

Payet finished on a high with her only match of day 2, a four-end triumph over Kate Cheer, who by comparison endured a tournament to forget.

And Barlow ensured every player left with at least one win to their name as she defeated Chan in the final round of matches.

Finishing order: 1 Denise Payet, 2 Mollie Patterson, 3 Jasmin Wong, 4 Sarah Menghistab, 5 Kate Cheer, 6 Sophie Barlow, 7 Ruby Chan.
