Table tennis comes to Sky Sports tomorrow night – and to celebrate, we have teamed up with Bribar for a special competition with some great prizes!

The hour-long highlights from the PG Mutual National Championships will be broadcast on Sky Sports Mix at 6pm, with several repeats to follow over the subsequent 24 hours.

It tells the story of the championships day by day, with action and interviews with the leading players.

Among those featuring are, of course, the two men's finalists, Paul Drinkhall and Sam Walker, who produced the memorable rally below.

Watch the rally closely and tell us how many forehands and how many backhands are played by Paul during the rally – we are looking for two separate numbers and the serve counts as a forehand.

And we have some great prizes, courtesy of Bribar, for the first three correct answers out of the hat.

For the first place winner, we have a Tibhar Robo Pro Junior PLUS blades signed by legendary European table tennis ace Vladimir Samsonov and by Paul Drinkhall.

For second place there is a signed shirt by Paul Drinkhall and a pair of Mizuno Crossmatch Plio RX-3 Shoes.

And our third-place winner will get a shirt signed by Paul.

To enter, all you need to do is click here to watch the video again and enter your answer and contact details via the Bribar competitions page.

We hope you enjoy the programme on Sky – please spread the word to all your friends and family and ask them to watch as good viewing figures can only help future coverage of the sport.

And don't forget to look out for more upcoming coverage on Sky, including England Leopards' European qualifying matches. We will share the broadcast dates as soon as we know them.
