Darlington Table Tennis Academy's rising star Katie Wray won both the Cadet and Junior Girls' events in the recent Halifax Junior 2* Open.

In the Cadets 14-year-old Wray defeated Anais O'Connor, whom she had never before beaten, 3-1 in the final.

And she repeated the feat in the Juniors, beating O'Connor 3-1 in the semi-finals and then producing a fantastic comeback win in the final, saving a match point at 2-1 down to Sophie Newton and two more at 10-8 in the fifth. She finally won the deciding set 12-10 to overcome another player she had never previously beaten.
