The latest table tennis highlights package to be shown on Sky Sports Mix will be broadcast on Tuesday and Wednesday next week.

Featuring action from the double-header European Championships Qualifying play-offs in Preston, the show will first air at 6pm on Tuesday May 9.

The hour-long programme focuses on all seven individual matches played on the day as England men took on Slovakia and the women faced Spain.

There are also interviews and reaction from all the England players.

The programme will be repeated on Sky Sports Mix at 10pm on Tuesday and at 1am, 11.30am and 3pm on Wednesday. It will also be shown on Sky Sports 5 at 7am, 10am and 1pm on Wednesday (schedule subject to change, please check listings).

Once again, the programme has been put together by 1080 Media and follows programmes on the PG Mutual National Championships and England men v Netherlands which previously aired on Sky Sports.
