See a welcome note from Jenny below, along with details of how you can get in contact...

"I have always been a keen sportsperson growing up, trying as many sports as possible! I studied Psychology at Uni which is where I realised my passion for coaching and all things sport development. This led to my first role for England Netball; as a Development Officer supporting grass roots participation in Greater Manchester. I am now living in London and looking forward to bringing my experience from another NGB with a heavy focus on women engagement to this role. I have joined Table Tennis England because I want to be part of a forward thinking NGB and I'm ready for an exciting challenge in a new sports environment. "
