

Chief Executive's Update

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: July 18, 2017

It is now just over a week since Sport England confirmed that Table Tennis England's funding had been suspended following the narrow defeat at the AGM.

Since then, we have received a lot of support from within the sport and beyond, for which we are very grateful.

While we remain in a suspended funding position, Sport England have confirmed their full confidence in the Board and leadership team of Table Tennis England and the approaches they are taking to resolve the situation.

We will be making further statements later this week on the way forward.
