Great Britain's players came up against some formidable opponents at the World University Games as they exited the competition in the first knockout rounds.

Four of the six-strong squad qualified from their groups but all went out at the next hurdle in Chinese Taipei. Maria Tsaptsinos and Chloe Thomas were both overcome by top-100 players in the shape of Iana Noskova of Russia and Eunhye Lee of Korea respectively.

Danny Reed was beaten by world No 226 Joe Seyfried of France, while Adam Harrison went out at the hands of Ondrej Bajger, the world No 266 from the Czech Republic.

In the doubles, Reed & Harrison reached the last 32, while two mixed doubles pairs went out at the same stage.

The men's team had a big battle against Germany in the last 16 before going down 3-2, despite two impressive five-game wins for Reed.
