England have named a 13-strong squad for the Home Countries International Championships in Guernsey next month.

Male and female England teams will compete in Senior, Junior and Cadet categories against counterparts from Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Isle of Man, Guernsey and Jersey.

The team event will be held on the first two days, with singles competitions on the third day.

This is the inaugural event in the new format which combines two 6 Nations events. Previously, the Senior and Junior & Cadet 6 Nations events were held separately, with Isle of Man featuring in only the younger event and Jersey in only the older.

The England squad for the event from November 10-12 is:

Senior

Men – Josh Bennett, Matt Leete; Women – Evie Collier, Lois Peake

Junior

Boys – Reece Chamdal, Sam Chesterman, Joe Cope; Girls – Ruby Chan, Anaya Patel

Cadet

Boys – Naphong Boonyaprapa, Louis Price; Girls – Gemma Kerr, Millie Rogove

Coaches/non-playing captains – Nick Jarvis, Chris Parker, Anthony Constantinou
