Karina Le Fevre is going for a hat-trick of Grand Prix wins this season when the circuit stops off in Tipton.

The Cleveland ace, last year's overall champion, has already got women's singles victories under her belt in the Liverpool and Crawley events this season.

And she will be top seed when the action gets under way at Tipton Sports Academy on Saturday November 11. Second seed is Emily Bolton, beaten in the Crawley final, with Yolanda King third.

There will be a third winner in three men's singles events this season, however, as Liverpool victor and last season's overall champion Chris Doran is absent, as is Crawley winner Mike O'Driscoll. Craig Bryant is the top seed, ahead of Adam Nutland.
