Josh Bennett, Naphong Boonyaprapa and Gemma Kerr were double gold medallists as England dominated the Home Countries International in Guernsey.

A busy event saw two days of team competitions followed by an individual event as England took on Scotland, Wales, Ireland, Isle of Man, Jersey and hosts Guernsey in Senior, Junior and Cadet age groups, with both male and female teams in action in Corbillon Cup format.

In the senior events, England's men's team of Bennett and Matt Leete dropped only three ends in total on their way to gold, but the women's line-up of Lois Peake and Evie Collier had to settle for silver behind Wales after the match between the two ended 3-2 in favour of the Principality. It was a dramatic finish as Beth Roberts came from 2-0 down to beat Peake 3-2 (7-11, 4-11, 11-7, 11-9, 12-10) in the deciding match.

The Junior Boys (Reece Chamdal, Sam Chesterman and Joe Cope) edged their matches against Scotland and Ireland 3-2 and picked up 5-0 scorelines in the rest – Chesterman's 3-0 (11-2, 11-6, 12-10) win over Ireland's Joey Nelson in the final match securing the gold.

The Junior Girls were represented by Ruby Chan and Anaya Patel and won silver behind Wales – who beat them 4-1 in the second match.

The Cadet Boys' team of Naphong Boonyaprapa and Louis Price started with a 3-2 win over Jersey but then won the next four matches with relative ease to set up a decider against Ireland.

Naphong Boonyaprapa

At 2-0 down, it looked bleak, but they won the doubles 3-2 (13-11, 11-7, 2-11, 5-11, 11-6) against Thomas Joyce and Art McLaughlin, Boonyaprapa levelled by beating Joyce 3-1 (11-6, 9-11, 12-10, 11-2) and Price clinched gold against McLaughlin by a 3-0 (11-8, 11-5, 11-6) margin.

The Cadet Girls were represented by Mille Rogove and Gemma Kerr and it was 5-0 all the way to the final match against Ireland, who were also unbeaten to that point. Again, England had to come from 2-0 down as the doubles was won 3-2 (5-11, 11-4, 14-12, 10-12, 11-4) against Silke Heinen and Nicole Scott, Kerr beat Scott 3-0 (15-13, 11-4, 11-3) and Rogove defeated Heinen 3-2 (10-12, 11-9, 11-3, 9-11, 12-10) for a thrilling golden win.

The team events also allowed the individuals to be ranked into seeding order for the individuals on the final day, with Bennett, Rogove and Boonyaprapa all ending up as top seeds.

Bennett duly took his second gold, overcoming his colleague Leete 3-0 (11-9, 11-5, 11-8) in the final, while Peake added gold to team silver in the Senior Women thanks to a 3-1 (11-3, 9-11, 11-8, 11-5) win over Beth Roberts. Collier won a bronze.

The Juniors saw no medals for England as Cope, Patel and Chan all exited in the quarter-finals, but the Cadets made up for that with double gold for Boonyaprapa and Kerr.

Gemma Kerr

Boonyaparapa overcame Art McLaughlin (IRE) 3-2 (5-11, 11-5, 11-5, 9-11, 11-7), while it was an all-England match in the Girls' event as Kerr defeated Rogove 3-1 (4-11, 11-6, 11-8, 11-5).
