Mike O'Driscoll and Hannah Hicks lead the field at the Bath Grand Prix – the fourth stop of this year's circuit.

O'Driscoll, who won his first men's singles title at the Crawley event earlier in the season, is the No 1 seed ahead of Adam Nutland – who will be aiming to go one better than last time out at Tipton, when he lost in the final to Craig Bryant.

Hicks tops the women's seedings ahead of teenager Mollie Patterson for the event at Bath Arena, on December 16 and 17.
