China has named virtually the strongest possible squad for the Team World Cup in London in February.

Olympic champions Ma Long and Ding Ning spearhead the line-up, which features a host of top-10 ranked players to compete at the Copper Box Arena from February 22-25.

Joining Ma Long in the men's squad are Xu Xin, Fan Zhendong and Lin Gaoyuan, while the other two female players named are world No 1 Zhu Yuling and Liu Shiwen.

With up to five players allowed in each squad, further additions can be made up to the deadline of January 12.

Meanwhile, the London Chinese community has been throwing its support behind the Team World Cup.

The London Chinatown Chinese Association arranged for a table to be set up near one of the iconic gates into Chinatown so that a promotional film could be made.

Look out for the finished film in the near future!
