England's top two players cannot wait for the chance to take on the world's best at the Team World Cup in February – and are urging England supporters to snap up tickets to cheer them on.

Paul Drinkhall and Liam Pitchford took time out at a recent training camp to have a little fun by going full circle around the table, before recording a message to England supporters – watch the video below.

Tickets are selling fast for the event at the Copper Box Arena from February 22 to 25, with only a few now remaining for finals day on the Sunday.

For the perfect Team World Cup experience, why not upgrade to VIP tickets? Our VIP package is available on all days of the event and comes with a host of exclusive benefits.

You will be sat in the best available seating, offering the most comprehensive views of all courts. There will be hot food, drinks and a memento of the occasion. Most excitingly however, as part of the VIP package you will be able to access the training hall to watch the players ready themselves for battle!

It is an unrivalled chance to create a unique personal experience at the Team World Cup 2018!
