Anyone who has bought tickets to the Team World Cup can claim a 50% discount on tickets to the PG Mutual Nationals – and we're throwing in two England matches for free!

This is our way of saying thanks to everyone who has thrown their support behind the ITTF Team World Cup at the Copper Box Arena – while helping to make sure England's top players will have the support of a great crowd when they step out for the Nationals at the same venue the following week.

Paul Drinkhall and Tin-Tin Ho will be defending their singles crowns against the other leading players in the rankings – and there are three doubles titles to decide, plus a range of para events featuring a host of Paralympians.

The action is from Friday March 2 to Sunday March 4 and you can watch it all for half price if you have already bought Team World Cup tickets – we will be in touch soon with your exclusive discount code to enter when you buy tickets online.

What's more, any tickets to the PG Mutual Nationals include TWO free bonus events – the Under-21 National Championships, which is now a standalone tournament on Thursday March 1 at the Copper Box Arena, plus the double-header England Leopards match at the iconic venue on the evening of Tuesday February 27.

The European Championships fixtures from 6pm will see England men take on Bosnia-Herzegovina and the women face Norway.
