The PG Mutual National Championships are back this March – and we’re giving you the chance to win a pair of tickets to all four days!

The winner will get to watch England’s elite players go head-to-head as they battle it out for the chance to be call themselves National Champion.

As well as watching Paul Drinkhall and Tin-Tin Ho defend their singles crown, there are also three doubles titles to decide, plus a range of para events featuring a host of Paralympians.

This year is set to be our biggest, boldest and best event yet, as we host it in a world-class venue, the Copper Box Arena, London, just one week after the Team World Cup comes to the city.

Along with a new venue, we’ve got a new schedule and presentation planned – giving players and spectators the best possible experience.

What you can expect this year:

- A world-class venue – the iconic Copper Box Arena, located in the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park.
- A four-table tournament from the start, going down to one show court for Sunday.
- A separate day dedicated to the Under-21 competitions on Thursday March 1.
- The start of the Senior Nationals to be brought forward from 1pm to 10am on Friday March 2.
- PLUS: Free entry to the double-header European Championships fixture from 6pm on Tuesday February 27: England men vs Bosnia-Herzegovina and England women vs Norway.

To be in with a chance of winning a pair of tickets to all four days, you need to correctly guess which England player is behind the bat in this short video.
