We're offering ticket holders to the PG Mutual National Championships the chance to win an exclusive signed England kit!

Earlier this week we revealed the newly designed England Leopards gear and now you could be among the first to get your hands on it.

One lucky ticket holder to the PG Mutual National Championships will walk away from the event with the signed home kit, which features a new England Table Tennis Team logo designed around the traditional three leopards badge, as well as the logos of Butterfly and Tees Sport, the Butterfly partner for specialist equipment in the British Isles.

The PG Mutual National Championships brings together the top table tennis taken in the country – including Olympic and Paralympic heroes – who will battle it out for the chance to call themselves National Champion.

This year is set to be our biggest, boldest and best event yet, as we host it in a world-class venue, the Copper Box Arena, London, from 1-4 March – just one week after the Team World Cup comes to the city.

Anyone who has purchased tickets to this year's PG Mutual National Championships will be automatically entered into a prize draw to win the kit, which will feature autographs from the team competing at this month's ITTF Team World Cup.

If you haven't already purchased your ticket to the PG Mutual National Championship, tickets start from just £5 per day.
