Summary

Mayor's Skills Legacy Fund

PlaySport London: Skills Investment Programme provides funding to deliver a training and development investment initiative that will build the capacity and skills of Londoners working and volunteering in the sports sector in the lead up to, and beyond the 2010 Olympic Games and Paralympic Games.

To deliver this vision the right people, with the right skills and qualifications must be in place.

Led by the National Skills Academy for Sport and Active Leisure the funding will be used to deliver a training and development investment programme that will build the capacity and skills of Londoners working and volunteering in the sports sector.

The programme of activity includes:

Support the growth and sustainability of local sports clubs

- Recruit new sports coaches and officials

- Upskill existing sports coaches and officials

- Up skill sports club operational staff.

Increase the number of Londoners volunteering in sport

- Help local sports clubs to identify volunteer opportunities

- Help local volunteer centres to promote sports clubs volunteer vacancies

- Recruit participants from sports clubs to complete volunteer managers training

- Target under represented groups as sports volunteers.

Recruit, retain and upskill the workforce (both voluntary and paid)

- Upskill both paid and unpaid employees in management, supervisory and leadership skills

- Upskill both paid and unpaid employees in customer service skills

- Recruit and upskill health 'activators'

- Upskill employees to enable them to work more effectively with people with a disability

- Recruit more people with disabilities into the sector in either a voluntary or paid capacity
