

Volunteer Case Study

Name: Maria de Battista

Age: 23

Event you volunteered at: Jack Petchey Table Tennis Final – 2nd June, 2012

Why did you decide to volunteer?

A new experience and I am interested in the set up of events.

Was this your first experience of volunteering?

No, I have volunteered at various events, including in my home country of Malta.

How many hours did you volunteer at the event for?

From setting up the venue on Friday night, until the clearing out of the venue on Saturday afternoon.

What were the highlights of volunteering at the event?

Getting to know other people who share the same interests. Having the experience of knowing what goes on behind the scenes (e.g. preparation etc.) of such events.

What could have improved your volunteering experience?

A good experience overall.

What Next?

I will be volunteering at the 2012 Olympics.
