Welcome . . .

A warm welcome to Derby Arena for the resumption of Veterans' British League after a challenging 18 months away!

We are delighted that despite Covid, we have received a bumper number of entries this season – so much so that we have a second event taking place concurrently at Draycott & Long Eaton TTC for an additional 9 teams. Our sincere thanks goes to colleagues at Draycott for their support, to our referees Dave Goulden and John Mackey, and to our dedicated teams of officials and volunteers – we couldn't hold this busy event without you all, so many thanks to all those who give their time to make these weekends work.

Of course, Covid casts a long shadow – so whilst we are extremely grateful to remain at a capacity 40 tables/80 teams at Derby Arena, I thank you all in advance for your understanding and adherence to the operational procedures we have agreed with the venue for the safety of all involved.

The British League weekends – Veteran, Women and Junior – are among the biggest and best supported events on our calendar, so I would like to thank all the teams and players who come together to compete. I wish you all a successful weekend.

A warm welcome as well to Bribar, who as always will be waiting to serve you with your table tennis needs.

Neil Rogers, British League Chairman
